

This are the Tables of my Data Structures

- The first table is for FOOD CATEGORIES
- The second table is for MENU
- The third table is for ORDERS
- The fourth table is for USERS PROFILE

The screenshot shows the MySQL Workbench interface for the 'food_categories' table. The table has two columns: 'ID' and 'CategoryName'. The data is as follows:

ID	CategoryName
1	Hot_Shacks
2	Quick_Meals

The interface includes a toolbar with options like Browse, Structure, SQL, Search, Insert, Export, Import, Privileges, Operations, Tracking, and Triggers. Below the toolbar, there is a SQL query editor with the query 'SELECT * FROM food_categories'. Below the query editor, there are filters for 'Number of rows' (25) and 'Filter rows' (Search this table). Below the filters, there is a table view with columns 'ID' and 'CategoryName'. Below the table view, there is a 'Query results operations' section with options like Print, Copy to clipboard, Export, Display chart, and Create view. Below the operations section, there is a 'Bookmark this SQL query' section with a label and a checkbox 'Let every user access this bookmark'.

The screenshot shows the MySQL Workbench interface for the 'menu' table. The table has two columns: 'ID' and 'Item_Name'. The data is as follows:

ID	Item_Name
1	Fried Chicken With W BBQ, Lemon Pepper
2	Brownies

The interface includes a toolbar with options like Browse, Structure, SQL, Search, Insert, Export, Import, Privileges, Operations, Tracking, and Triggers. Below the toolbar, there is a SQL query editor with the query 'SELECT * FROM menu'. Below the query editor, there are filters for 'Number of rows' (25) and 'Filter rows' (Search this table). Below the filters, there is a table view with columns 'ID' and 'Item_Name'. Below the table view, there is a 'Query results operations' section with options like Print, Copy to clipboard, Export, Display chart, and Create view. Below the operations section, there is a 'Bookmark this SQL query' section with a label and a checkbox 'Let every user access this bookmark'.
